Frontier Communications Names Greg Lundberg Vice President of Investor Relations

STAMFORD, Conn.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Frontier Communications Corporations (NASDAQ: FTR) announced today that Gregory H. Lundberg has been named Vice President of Investor Relations and Assistant Treasurer. He reports to Donald R. Shassian, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer.

"Greg is actively involved in our operations and strategy and has a strong understanding of the fundamentals underlying our business that need to be communicated to our stakeholders," said Shassian. "Since joining Frontier in 2009 as Director of Investor Relations, he has played a critical role in enhancing our communications to our stakeholders, and being actively involved in capital markets and other treasury activities. I am confident that his wealth of expertise in building and leading investor relations functions will help Frontier continue to deliver on our commitment to provide transparency to all of our stakeholders."

Before Frontier, Lundberg was President of Communications Equity Research, LLC, a top-ranked independent equity research firm covering the telecommunications, media, and technology industries. Prior to that, he was a Vice President in Equity Research at Morgan Stanley covering telecommunications, and also an Associate Director in Equity Research at Bear, Stearns & Co. covering telecommunications. Earlier, he was Assistant Vice President in the Media & Communications Finance Group at Banque Paribas focused on senior debt lending. He began his career at The Bank of New York as a credit analyst in U.S. Commercial Banking.

Lundberg earned a B.A. in Philosophy from Colby College and an MBA in Finance from New York University.
