Sotheby's EST.1744

Press Release New York | For Immediate Release

New York | +1 212 606 7176 | Lauren Gioia | Lauren.Gioia@Sothebys.com |
Dan Abernethy | Dan.Abernethy@Sothebys.com |

Sotheby's Spring Wine Sale In New York

On 12 May 2012 Sotheby's will offer Finest and Rarest Wines Including Wines from the Cellar of Carl T. Lomboy, MD in New York. Carl T. Lomboy, MD assembled a spectacular collection over twenty years. His comprehensive selection includes the greatest Bordeaux and Californian vintages from the last thirty years along with outstanding smaller selections from Burgundy, Italy, Portugal and Australia. Highlights from elsewhere in the sale include an exquisite 1990 Assortment from Domain Romanée Conti as well as two extremely rare 3 liter Jeroboams of 2005 and 2006 Montrachet from DRC. The 946 lot sale is estimated to fetch $1.2/2.8 million.

Highlights

Lot 329: 12 bottles 1990 Domaine de la Romanée-Conti Assortment, DRC, est. $30,000-45,000 (pictured above)

Lots 274: 1 jeroboam (3L) 2005 Montrachet, DRC, est.$16,000-22,500 and Lot 275: 1 jeroboam (3L) 2006 Montrachet, DRC, est.$12,000-20,000 (below right)

Lot 132: 6 bottles 1985 Sassicaia, est. $6,000-9,000 (below left)

Lots 425-432: 12 bottles 1982 Château Mouton Rothschild, est. $10,000-15,000 (pictured right)

Lots 425-432: An 8 case parcel of 1982 Château Mouton Rothschild, est. $10-15,000 per lot

Lot 4: 6 magnums 1986 Château Mouton Rothschild, est. $7,000-10,000

Lot 512: 3 bottles of the legendary 1945 Château Mouton Rothschild, est. $17,000-25,000

Lot 455: 12 bottles 1982 Château Pétrus, est. $40,000-60,000

Lot 23: 12 bottles 1982 Château Lafite Rothschild, est. $32,500-42,500

9 vintages of Screaming Eagle including, Lot 203: 3 bottles 1997, est. $5,500-7,500. Lot 207: 3 bottles 2002 est. $4,000-5,500, Lot 400: 12 bottles 2008 est. $11,000-15,000 and Lot 402: 12 bottles 2009 est. $11,000-15,000