May 3, 2012

Chindex International, Inc. Announces Participation in Upcoming Investor Conferences

BETHESDA, Md., May 3, 2012 /PRNewswire-Asia/ -- Chindex International, Inc. (NASDAQ: CHDX), an American health care company providing health care services in China through the operations of United Family Healthcare, a network of private primary care hospitals and affiliated ambulatory clinics, today announced its participation in the following conferences:

- CLSA's 17th China Forum, to be held May 14-16, 2012 at the Grand Hyatt Beijing. Management is scheduled to present at 10:30 a.m. Beijing Time on Monday, May 14, 2012 and to meet with institutional investors throughout the day.
- Deutsche Bank's 3rd Annual DB Access Asia Conference, to be held May 28-30, 2012 at the Marina Bay Sands Resort and Casino, Singapore. Management is scheduled to present at 11:00 a.m. local time on Monday, May 28, 2012 and to meet with institutional investors throughout the day.

For further details, please contact your respective institutional sales representatives.

About Chindex International, Inc.

Chindex is an American healthcare company providing healthcare services in China through the operations of United Family Healthcare, a network of private primary care hospitals and affiliated ambulatory clinics. United Family Healthcare currently operates in Beijing, Shanghai, Tianjin and Guangzhou. The Company also provides medical capital equipment and products through Chindex Medical Ltd., a joint venture company with manufacturing and distribution businesses serving both domestic China and export markets. With thirty years of experience, the Company's strategy is to continue its growth as a leading integrated healthcare provider in the Greater China region. Further company information may be found at the Company's website at http://www.chindex.com.

Contact:
ICR, Inc.
Robert Koepp
(+86) 10-6583-7516
(646) 328-2510

SOURCE Chindex International, Inc.

News Provided by Acquire Media