DynCorp International Selected for Department of State Worldwide Criminal Justice Program Support Contract

FALLS CHURCH, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- DynCorp International (DI) today announced that it has been selected by the U.S. Department of State (DoS) Bureau of International Narcotics and Law Enforcement Affairs (INL) as one of five providers on the Criminal Justice Program Support (CJPS) contract.

Awarded on May 10, 2011, the multiple-award, indefinite delivery / indefinite quantity (IDIQ) contract has one base year with four option years and a total value of $10 billion across all providers. DI will compete with the four other providers for task orders to support criminal justice sector development programs worldwide, providing advisors, other specialists, and life and mission support services.

"Supporting the development of law enforcement and criminal justice programs around the world is one of our core competencies and we bring decades of experience to these programs," said DI president Steve Schorer. "We are honored to have the opportunity to compete for task orders under this contract and look forward to supporting this important program."

Since 1994, the U.S. Government has relied on DI to find, train, deploy, and support U.S. civilian police to assist and train local police forces in post-conflict nations. The company has deployed more than 6,000 law-enforcement professionals in 16 countries across the globe.

About DynCorp International

DynCorp International is a global government services provider in support of U.S. national security and foreign policy objectives, delivering support solutions for defense, diplomacy and international development. DI operates major programs in logistics, platform support, contingency operations and training and mentoring to reinforce security, community stability and the rule of law. DynCorp International is headquartered in Falls Church, Va. For more information, visit www.dyn-intl.com.

Contact: Ashley Burke
703-462-7116
Ashley.burke@dyn-intl.com