Dollar General Named to GI Jobs' Top 100 Military-Friendly Employers List

Dollar General supports military members and veterans

GOODLETTSVILLE, Tenn., Nov 09, 2009 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- Dollar General Corp. has been named to GI Jobs magazine's top 100 military-friendly employers list. The list, drawn from a sample of an estimated 5,000 companies, was created based on criteria such as the strength of company military recruiting efforts, the percentage of new hires with prior military service and company policies toward National Guard and reserve service.

"Dollar General is honored to be included on this prestigious list," said Rick Dreiling, Dollar General's chairman and CEO. "We value the experience and expertise of our military employees whose dedication to service fits well with Dollar General's mission of Serving Others. We are glad that veterans and active military members choose to use their talents to contribute to Dollar General's success."

Dollar General is committed to its employees who are veterans, active military or serving in the National Guard and Reserve. As of May 2009, Dollar General had approximately 3,400 employees who have served or are currently serving in the military.
