

Apple Business Conduct Policy
Summary of Changes
October 14, 2015

The following summarizes changes to Apple's Business Conduct Policy:

- The Money Laundering section of Apple's Business Conduct Policy was clarified to include the sentence "The laws in certain countries require Apple to report suspicious activity."
- The Protecting Apple's Assets and Information section of Apple's Business Conduct Policy was changed. "Care for the company. Keep the mystery alive. and Be upstanding." were replaced with "Watch what you say. Protect our stuff. Set the example."
- The No Gift section of Apple's Business Conduct Policy was revised to include the ASC/ASM/ACEs.

Other technical, administrative and non-substantive and conforming changes were also made to the Business Conduct Policy.