Interactive Intelligence Foundation Now Accepting Grant Applications

The Foundation is now accepting grant applications from organizations seeking funding to assist at-risk youth

INDIANAPOLIS--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- The Interactive Intelligence Foundation is now accepting grant applications from not-for-profit organizations seeking funding to assist at-risk youth.

Requests for funds are being accepted immediately through Nov. 16, 2012 at 5 p.m. Eastern time (EST).

The Interactive Intelligence Foundation board will be reviewing requests based on the following criteria:

- How the requesting organization's mission aligns with the Interactive Intelligence Foundation's mission.
- The organization's emphasis on science and technology.
- The impact the project will have on at-risk youth.

Awarded funds are designated for distribution in 2013. Decisions will be communicated by Dec. 14, 2012.

The Foundation was formed in 2010 by global provider of business communications solutions, Interactive Intelligence Group Inc. (Nasdaq: ININ). The Foundation is a nonprofit corporation whose mission is to utilize available resources and funding to foster life improvements for at-risk youth.
