EL SEGUNDO, Calif., Jun 18, 2010 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- Five photos of Disney*Pixar's "Toy Story 3" toys from Mattel (NASDAQ:MAT) are available on Business Wire's Web Site and AP PhotoExpress.

Photo one:

- Mattel's iconic dolls Barbie(R) and Ken(R) enjoy some downtime during the filming of one of this summer's biggest blockbusters, Disney*Pixar's "Toy Story 3."

Photo two:

- These six-inch action figures capture all the personality and fun of Disney*Pixar's "Toy Story 3"! Collect your favorite characters like Buzz, Woody, Rex and Jessie - and look for all-new friends!

Photo three:

- The ultimate "linkable" stunt sets that simply snap together to create an interactive, adventurous Disney*Pixar's "Toy Story 3" world. Once connected a simple push of a button triggers an exciting chain reaction where characters fly through the air, zip line to safety and more - just like in the movie! Available in five collectible stunt sets.

Photo four:

- This cool Buzz Lightyear inspired forearm cuff is the ultimate space gadget with lights, sounds and tons of "firepower!" Switch from laser mode to ultra blast mode with the push of a button, or activate the pop-up scope to target "aliens."

Photo five:

- Be like Buzz! Once kids slip into the backpack-styled Wing Pack, a simple push of a button is all that's needed for the fun to start -- making the wings pop out, wingtips to light up and for Buzz to recite his signature phrases. When tipped horizontally, the Wing Pack's sensors know kids are "flying" and makes corresponding flying sounds!
