J.P. Morgan To Sponsor 21 ETFs Advised By First Trust On The Mexican Stock Exchange

NEW YORK, September 8, 2011 - J.P. Morgan announced today that it has been appointed to sponsor the listing of twenty-one exchange-traded index funds ("ETFs") advised by First Trust Advisors L.P. ("First Trust"), an SEC-registered investment advisor, on the international segment of the Mexican Stock Exchange, Bolsa Mexicana de Valores (BMV). The cross-listed ETFs will be listed on the BMV in pesos and trades can be initiated through a local broker.

J.P. Morgan's Depositary Receipts (DR) business will service the ETFs and handle all corporate actions. J.P. Morgan will disseminate relevant shareholder and corporate actions information in the Mexican market via BMV. Additionally, a dedicated J.P. Morgan representative will be available in Mexico City to provide local expertise and guidance to investors.

"Given the firm's relevant experience and expertise in the ETF space, J.P. Morgan was the clear choice for servicing these ETFs. First Trust believes that our relationship with J.P. Morgan will bring better service and pricing to this expanding marketplace," said Ron McAlister, Managing Director at First Trust.

Joseph Dooley, DR Executive for the Americas at J.P. Morgan, said: "We are delighted about the opportunity to service First Trust's ETFs in Mexico. We feel confident that there will continue to be an increased demand from both providers and investors for peso-dominated ETFs, and we believe that our proven track record and global capabilities will greatly benefit First Trust's entry into this marketplace."
