

Clearwater Paper Corporation Announces Proposed Offering of Senior Notes

SPOKANE, Wash., Jun 05, 2009 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- Clearwater Paper Corporation (NYSE: CLW) today announced a proposed offering of $150 million aggregate principal amount of senior notes due 2016 (the "Notes").

A portion of the net proceeds of the offering will be used to satisfy and discharge the Company's obligation related to the indenture under which $100 million principal amount of credit sensitive debentures due December 1, 2009 were issued. The credit sensitive debentures were issued by an affiliate of Potlatch Corporation and the Company retained an obligation to repay amounts associated with the debentures prior to the spin-off of the Company from Potlatch Corporation. The Company will retain the remaining net proceeds of the Notes for general corporate purposes, including potential acquisitions and capital expenditures.

As the offering is a private placement, the notes will be offered and sold only to qualified institutional buyers in reliance on Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Securities Act") and to certain non-U.S. persons in transactions outside the United States in reliance on Regulation S under the Securities Act. The notes to be offered have not been registered under the Securities Act or any state securities laws and may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an applicable exemption from registration requirements.

This press release does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any of the notes nor shall there be any sale of the notes in any jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful.

This press release contains information about pending transactions, and there can be no assurance that these transactions will be completed.
