Rockstar Games and Interscope Records Announce Box Set Soundtrack Details For Grand Theft Auto: San Andreas

8-CD Box Set Follows the November 22nd European and November 23rd North American releases of the Grand Theft Auto: San Andreas Double CD featuring the bonus DVD, 'The Introduction'

New York, NY - November 16, 2004 - Rockstar Games, the world-renowned publishing label of Take-Two Interactive Software, Inc. (NASDAQ: TTWO), and Interscope Records, a part of Universal Music Group, proudly announce the details of the 8-CD box set soundtrack to Grand Theft Auto: San Andreas, the latest installment in the best-selling Grand Theft Auto franchise. The box set is scheduled for release on December 7th, 2004 in North America and December 6th, 2004 throughout Europe.

With the game set in the early 1990's, the Grand Theft Auto: San Andreas soundtrack features one of the most dynamic selections of music ever assembled. The music spans the entire FM radio dial of the West Coast during this particularly influential period in American music and culture. The 8-CD box set will feature over 80 music tracks as well as some of the satirical commercials and witty DJ dialogue emblematic of the Grand Theft Auto franchise. Each disc of the box set will feature a style of music available in Grand Theft Auto: San Andreas' many in-game radio stations - from Willie Nelson to Public Enemy, Rick James to Humble Pie, Soundgarden to James Brown, En Vogue to Black Uhuru - making this one of the most diverse and powerful collections in music history.
