

Cyalume Technologies, Inc. Postpones the Release of its 3rd Quarter 2009 Financial Results

WEST SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Nov. 16, 2009 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Cyalume Technologies Inc. (OTCBB:CYLU) (the "Company") today announced that the release of its 3rd quarter 2009 financial results scheduled to be issued at the close of market today, is being postponed until the week of November 22, 2009. The postponement is due to the Company being delayed in compiling all of the necessary information required to be included in its 10-Q for the period in question. The Company expects to announce later in the week a date and time for the week of November 22, 2009, when the financial results will be announced as well as the filing of the 10-Q. The previously scheduled conference call on November 17, 2009 at 11:00 AM Eastern to discuss the financial results, will also be postponed with a new date and time to be disclosed later in the week.

About Cyalume Technologies

Cyalume Technologies is the world leader in the chemiluminescent industry providing dependable light for uses by militaries, police, fire and other public safety organizations in the U.S., NATO countries and the Middle East. Cyalume's chemical lights are depended on in emergencies such as blackouts, industrial accidents, acts of terrorism and natural disasters. A full complement of Military grade Cyalume(R) brand, Industrial grade SnapLight(R) brand and Consumer grade Safety Bright(R) brand emergency lighting solutions are manufactured at its plant in West Springfield, MA. The company employs 150 people at its locations in West Springfield and Aix-en-Provence, France.

CONTACT: Cyalume Technologies Holding, Inc.
Derek Dunaway, President and Chief Executive Officer
(413) 858-2500
ddunaway@cyalume.com

BPC Financial Marketing
Investor Relations:
John Baldissera
800-368-1217

(C) Copyright 2009 GlobeNewswire, Inc. All rights reserved.