

TAPFIN PROCESS SOLUTIONS NAMED LEADING PROJECT/ON DEMAND RPO PROVIDER IN HRO TODAY'S ANNUAL BAKER'S DOZEN

HOUSTON, TX (19 August 2008) -

HRO Today Magazine, as part of the results of its annual Baker's Dozen survey, recently ranked TAPFIN Process Solutions as the fourth top recruitment process outsourcing (RPO) provider of project and on demand RPO services.

"HRO Today's annual RPO Baker's Dozen feature is the definitive source that our readership of HR leaders turn to for information on the recruitment process outsourcing market," said HRO Today Editor-in-Chief Andy Teng. "We congratulate all the service providers who are mentioned for having established a proven track record and satisfied customers in this field."

TAPFIN Process Solutions' RPO services utilize best-in-class practices to identify and hire the ideal direct employees, allowing client executives to focus on their core businesses. TAPFIN provides a continuum of service levels ranging from end-to-end (handling all recruiting functions) to on-demand (partial management) and project-based recruitment. TAPFIN's expertise spans the entire recruitment process lifecycle, from requisition management and sourcing to interviewing, on-boarding and performance metrics.

"We are extremely pleased with our recognition in the Baker's Dozen," said Kip Wright, President of TAPFIN. "TAPFIN is committed to providing the very best level of RPO services to our clients, enabling them to see a real return on their investment and concentrate their own valuable resources on their work at hand, rather than on recruitment functions."

HRO Today is read by more than 70,000 human resources executives and leaders and covers the latest industry trends in HR outsourcing, services, shared services and operations. Full survey results published in the July/August issue. For more information, visit www.hrotoday.com.
