Oak Hill Capital Partners to Acquire Sovernet Communications

Combination with FirstLight Fiber and Oxford Networks will create a stronger Northeast fiber provider

Bellows Falls, VT, August 8, 2016 – Sovernet Communications (“Sovernet”), a leading fiber-optic bandwidth infrastructure services provider operating in Vermont, New York and southwest New Hampshire, announced today that it has entered into a definitive agreement to be acquired by Oak Hill Capital Partners (“Oak Hill”). At the closing of the transaction, Oak Hill intends to combine the operations of Sovernet with FirstLight Fiber (“FirstLight”), which Oak Hill previously announced an agreement to acquire. FirstLight is another leading provider of fiber optic communications in the northeast.

The transaction will combine Sovernet’s high-capacity network transport, broadband Internet, and voice services with FirstLight’s complete portfolio of data, Internet, data center and voice services, which are backed by strong, locally-based service and support. Upon completion of the transaction and Oak Hill’s other pending strategic transactions, including FirstLight and Oxford Networks, the combined companies will operate a total of approximately 9,500 route miles of high-capacity fiber optic network and eleven data centers across New England and New York.

Sovernet’s President and CEO Richard Kendall said, “Sovernet has become a regional leader in high-capacity network transport, broadband Internet and voice services, but this transaction will allow us to do even more to serve our customers. We achieved much in twenty-one years through a combination of dedicated staff, constant reinvestment in the network and remarkable long-term customer relationships. All of these things will continue as we begin a new chapter with FirstLight, which shares our commitment to excellence and is ready to take us to new heights.”

FirstLight Fiber’s President and CEO Kurt Van Wagenen said, “This is an exciting development for FirstLight Fiber. This acquisition is very complementary to FirstLight’s existing network and capability. Once combined, our network will reach further into Vermont, New Hampshire and New York, allowing us to provide high quality, broadband, fiber-based services to more businesses and carriers located in this region.”

In March 2016, Oak Hill agreed to purchase FirstLight from its current owner, Riverside Partners.

Q Advisors, LLC served as financial advisor to ATN, the parent company of Sovernet, and Mintz Levin Cohn Ferris Glovsky and Popeo, PC acted as legal counsel. Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP served as legal counsel to Oak Hill. The transaction is expected to close by early 2017, following the satisfaction of customary regulatory approvals. Financial terms of the transaction were not disclosed.
