Edgewater Ranzal Among 100 Most Promising Big Data Solution Providers in CIOReview

WHITE PLAINS, N.Y., Aug. 16, 2016 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Edgewater Technology-Ranzal, LLC, (Edgewater Ranzal), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Edgewater Technology, Inc. (NASDAQ:EDGW) is being recognized as one of the "100 Most Promising Big Data Solution Providers" by CIOReview.

"It's a delightful experience to include Edgewater Ranzal on our 2016 list of the 100 most promising Big Data solution providers," said Jeevan George, Managing Editor of CIOReview. "Edgewater Ranzal is recognized for aiding enterprises in capturing and analyzing large data sets in order to remain competitive, increase productivity, and foster innovation in the Big Data arena."

Edgewater Ranzal builds solutions that allow users to explore datasets in an easy-to-use and consumer-friendly manner. The company empowers end users to dive into data for root cause analysis and discover correlations that are not possible with traditional approaches.

"We have created a data marketplace for organizations that makes information available to business and non-technical users and allows them to apply a knowledge of the business to use data to solve real problems," asserts Ed Sullivan, Practice Director, Business Intelligence and Big Data, Edgewater Ranzal.

"It is extraordinary to be recognized for our success with providing Big Data solutions to clients," said Edgewater Ranzal President Robin Ranzal. "We continue to strive to help organizations utilize their data to drive real business value and results, and our Big Data solutions team has made us the leader in this arena."
