

Enventis Shareholder FAQ

When did the merger with Enventis (NASDAQ: ENVE) and Consolidated Communications (NASDAQ: CNSL) close?

The merger between the two companies closed on Oct. 16, 2014

What was the stock conversion ratio?

The stock ratio is for each ENVE common share, the shareholder will get 0.7402 CNSL common shares.

Where can I find tax information, including calculation of taxable gain/loss on shares, for the Enventis stock (formerly HickoryTech or Mankato Citizens Telephone Company)?

Please consult your own tax advisor regarding particular consequences of your stock gain/loss.

Does Consolidated Communications have a dividend reinvestment program?

No, Consolidated Communications does not currently have a dividend reinvestment program. Any declared dividends will be payable to registered shareholders by way of a check payment and will be payable to a beneficial shareholder via a deposit in their brokerage account.

Who is the Consolidated Communications transfer agent?

Computershare Trust Company, N.A.

P.O. Box 43078

Providence, RI 02940-3078

PH: 800-446-2617

www.computershare.com/equiserve

Does Consolidated Communications pay dividends?

CNSL has historically paid dividends at a quarterly rate of $0.38738 per common share. Dividends are reviewed and voted on quarterly by CNSL's board of directors.

What is the Consolidated Communications past dividend schedule?

CNSL has historically paid dividends on February 1st, May 1st, August 1st and November 1st. All dividend payments are reviewed and voted on by the CNSL's board of directors.

See other Investor FAQ