

Consolidated Communications Now Offers TV Streaming in the Spanish Language

Consolidated Communications adds VEMOX™ Spanish TV streaming service allowing users to access their favorite Spanish-language content wherever and whenever they choose.

CONROE, Texas – July 21, 2017 - Consolidated Communications Holdings, Inc. (NASDAQ: CNSL), a leading business and broadband communications provider, announces the launch of VEMOX™, an Olympusat, Inc., product. VEMOX™ is an Internet-based streaming video service entirely in Spanish that only requires a high-speed Internet connection (no TV service required). According to Olympusat, Inc., Consolidated Communications is the first service provider in the U.S. to offer VEMOX™.

Consolidated broadband customers now have access to top-rated Spanish-language content with the addition of 70-plus live channels and thousands of on-demand movies and shows, whether at home or on the go. VEMOX™ delivers HD quality streaming for the Spanish-speaking audience from popular contemporary series and documentaries to restored classic films. A vast selection of viewing options are available including faith-based channels and children's programming. This service is available on Apple and Android mobile devices as well as Samsung and LG Smart TVs.

"Providing a robust and inclusive portfolio of content offerings is something that we consistently strive to do," said Rob Koester, vice president of consumer product management at Consolidated Communications. "This platform gives us the ability to provide desired programming on a full range of connected devices at home or on the go."
