

Great American Group and Tiger Capital Group to Close All 68 MC Sports Stores Across the Midwest

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 23, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- A joint venture between Great American Group (GA) and Tiger Capital Group announced today that it has partnered with MC Sports, a privately-held sporting goods retailer, to facilitate the orderly exit of all 68 of its stores across the Midwest.

GREAT AMERICAN GROUP

Great American Group is a leading provider of advisory and valuation services, asset disposition and auction solutions, and a subsidiary of B. Riley Financial, Inc. (NASDAQ: RILY). Tiger Capital Group provides comprehensive valuations, disposition services, capital infusions and operational expertise to companies in times of growth, distress or transition.

"Our deep history of working with retailers such as MC Sports has given us the experience to quickly and efficiently exit these locations," said Scott K. Carpenter, President of GA Retail Solutions.

"This is a rare opportunity for customers to take advantage of significant savings on some of their favorite sporting goods," said Michael McGrail, Chief Operating Officer of Tiger Capital Group.

The store closing sales started February 14, 2017 and are expected to last several weeks before all of the merchandise is sold in the store locations. Customers can expect to see discounts up to 30% off the lowest available prices on dozens of top brands.

About MC Sports

Founded in 1946, MC Sports launched as Michigan Clothiers, offering everything from men's clothing to military surplus. In 1962, the company began to solidify its reputation as a specialty retailer by focusing entirely on sports equipment, footwear, and apparel.
