

AngioDynamics Appoints Michael C. Greiner as New Chief Financial Officer

Greiner brings more than 20 years of accounting, corporate finance and operations experience from a variety of global corporations

ALBANY, N.Y., July 25, 2016 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- AngioDynamics (NASDAQ:ANGO), a leading provider of innovative, minimally invasive medical devices for vascular access, surgery, peripheral vascular disease and oncology, today announced the appointment of Michael Greiner as the company's new Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, effective August 16, 2016.

"Michael's broad expertise in corporate finance and accounting, combined with his experience at large organizations across a variety of industries, uniquely positions him to lead AngioDynamics' financial organization and help support the company's strategy as we seek to grow over the long-term," said Jim Clemmer, President and Chief Executive Officer of AngioDynamics.

Greiner most recently served as the Chief Financial Officer at Extreme Reach, Inc., a cloud-based enterprise platform for brand advertising, responsible for all finance and human resource operations. Prior to his role at Extreme Reach, Greiner held several executive roles, including Senior Vice President Corporate Finance and Chief Accounting Officer at Cimpress N.V. (formerly known as Vistaprint N.V.), Global Controller for GE's Water and Processing Technologies division and leadership roles at Bausch & Lomb and Wyeth. Greiner has also served as an adjunct professor at several universities and earned a Master's in Business Administration from Columbia University Business School, as well as a Bachelor and Master of Science in Accounting from Fairleigh Dickinson University.
