Radio City Rockettes to Perform at Inauguration Festivities for President-Elect Donald Trump

NEW YORK, Dec. 22, 2016 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- It was announced today that the Radio City Rockettes will participate in inauguration festivities in Washington D.C. next month for President-elect Donald Trump. James L. Dolan, executive chairman of The Madison Square Garden Company, made the following statement:

"The Radio City Rockettes, an original American brand, have performed at Radio City Music Hall since 1932 and, as treasured American icons, have taken part in some of the nation's most illustrious events such as Super Bowl halftime shows, Macy's Thanksgiving Day parades and presidential inaugurations, including in 2001 and 2005. We are honored that the Rockettes have again been asked to perform in the upcoming inauguration festivities."
