Herbalife Nutrition Recognized With Forbes Magazine America's Best Employers Award

LOS ANGELES--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Global nutrition company, Herbalife (NYSE: HLF), is honored to receive a place on Forbes' list of America's Best Midsize Employers.

"We're proud to be recognized as part of the Forbes list of America's Best Midsize Employers," said Jean Marie Cacciatore, senior vice president of human resources, Herbalife. "As employees of Herbalife Nutrition, we act with honor, respect each other and succeed as a team. Being on this list is a testament to our unique and caring culture and to our employees who commit to making this a great place to work every day."

The study shows the willingness of Herbalife Nutrition employees to recommend the company to others -- one of the most important metrics in the study. Herbalife Nutrition was also measured based on survey responses from employees of other companies who were asked to name good or bad employers other than their own. Overall, Herbalife Nutrition received the fourth highest ranking in its category of Food, Soft Beverages, Alcohol & Tobacco.

The companies on the Forbes list of best midsize employers were chosen based on an independent survey conducted by statistics portal Statista from a sample of 30,000 American employees working for large or midsize firms or institutions. The survey included companies from all industry sectors employing from 1,000 to 5,000 workers in the United States. Of the over 8,000 Herbalife employees worldwide, 2,200 work in the U.S.
