Santa Fe Relocation wins big at the APAC Expatriate Management and Mobility Awards (EMMAs)

The 2017 Forum for Expatriate Management APAC EMMA awards ceremony held on 7 September in Hong Kong, to honour industry leaders in multiple categories, proved to be an evening of great celebration for Santa Fe Relocation.

Santa Fe Relocation was awarded winner for both 'Best Thought Leadership' as well as 'Outstanding Corporate Social Responsibility'. In addition, Santa Fe was a runner up in multiple categories, including 'International Moving Company of the Year', 'Relocation Management Company of the Year', and 'Best Employee Benefit Services'. Also, Santa Fe was highly commended a further three times, including the categories for the 'Most Innovative Technology', 'Destination Services Provider of the Year', and 'Immigration Provider of the Year'.

"The awards highlight that as one of the few integrated mobility providers, we have a competitive offering in all our services, we were seen as a thought leader, and we were recognised in all the areas of strategic focus for Santa Fe" said Martin Thaysen, Group CEO for the Santa Fe Group. "It was also great to see that we took top honours with our CSR activities, underlining that while we are of course here for our customers, our purpose of enabling people and organisations work, live and thrive in new places around the world, goes beyond the pure business."

Martin Thaysen closed: "We are really excited about this great recognition, and thank the FEM and the judges for their review of our services, and for selecting us for these honours."
