Christian Sagild resigns as CEO of Topdanmark at the turn of the year

4 October 2017

Announcement No. 25/2017

Topdanmark's Board of Directors and Christian Sagild, CEO, have agreed that Christian Sagild resigns as CEO of Topdanmark with effect as from 1 January 2018.

"I would like to thank Christian Sagild for his great efforts that resulted in the best half-year result in the history of the company in the first half of 2017. The process concerning efficiency improvement and digitalisation is well under way. The time is right for taking on a new CEO who will be able to lead Topdanmark through the next phase. The Board of Directors and Christian Sagild have agreed that a change is right", says Torbjörn Magnusson, Chairman of Topdanmark's Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors will now start a recruitment process to find a successor for Christian Sagild.

"Topdanmark's plans for development are well under way, and we have delivered historically good results. Therefore, I believe that the foundation for the future development of Topdanmark is in place" says Christian Sagild.
