KeyW Launches Mobile Persistent Cyber Training Environment

Solution Delivers Integrated Classroom and Hands-on Practical Exercises at Any Location

HANOVER, Md., March 22, 2017 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- The KeyW Holding Corporation (NASDAQ:KEYW) today announced the launch of its Persistent Cyber Training Environment—Mobile (PCTE—Mobile) solution, an extension of its traditional advanced, integrated cyber mission training platform.

PCTE-Mobile is a self-contained, fully functional classroom—available for use at any location—that delivers wired and wireless connectivity to KeyW's flexible, fully configurable virtual cyber training environment. The solution integrates classroom instruction with extensive hands-on practical exercises that leverage open-source tools and real-world case studies.

"PCTE-Mobile brings the power of the data center to students anywhere in the world," said Greg Dixon, vice president of KeyW's Advanced Cyber Operations Sector. "It greatly reduces travel costs for our customers and minimizes total ownership costs regarding student, infrastructure and content management—while driving proficiency in mission-centric offensive and defensive methodologies."

PCTE-Mobile delivers a proven interactive training environment, certified instructors, custom training for any mission requirement and a speed-to-competency advantage for the cyber workforce. Contact cybertraining@keywcorp.com for information on PCTE-Mobile pricing, customization and scheduling.
