Progress Announces Winners of the Progress Sitefinity 2016 Website of the Year Awards

Nineteen winners worldwide honored for the best in website creativity, design, user experience, functionality and overall presentation

BEDFORD, Mass.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Progress (NASDAQ: PRGS) today announced winners of its annual Progress[®] Sitefinity[™] Website of the Year awards, which celebrate innovation and best-in-class websites developed using the Progress Sitefinity Content Management System \(CMS\). Since its inception in 2011, the Website of the Year awards have been recognizing websites powered by the Progress Sitefinity application for creativity, design, user experience, functionality and overall website presentation.

This year, 57 websites developed using the Sitefinity platform were recognized across 19 categories: Consumer Goods, Sports & Entertainment, Banking, Insurance, Healthcare, Manufacturing, Energy & Utilities, Transportation, Education, Construction, Services, Tourism & Hospitality, Food & Beverages, Associations, Events, Ecommerce, Multisite, Intranet and Graphic Design.

The 2016 Website of the Year winners were selected in two phases. First, an internal Progress jury shortlisted the three best websites developed using the Progress Sitefinity application in the 19 designated categories. After narrowing the field, voting was opened up to the community at large via email and social media, and the finalists with the highest number of votes were appointed the winners. With more than 7,400 votes cast, the results are as follows:

- | Consumer Goods: Tropicana, implemented by VML
