

HMS Holdings Corp. Announces New Head of Human Resources

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- HMS Holdings Corp. (NASDAQ:HMSY) today announced that Tracy South has joined the company to head its Human Resources department. Ms. South has over 20 years of executive-level Human Resources experience, including at national healthcare organizations.

"Tracy is a seasoned executive with deep experience in talent identification and development, organizational development, and performance management, along with a solid understanding of how to align Human Resources and business processes to support company objectives," said Bill Lucia, Chief Executive Officer. "We believe that attracting, retaining and developing talent is key to our success and we look forward to benefiting from Tracy's expertise as we continue to grow our business."

Prior to joining HMS, Ms. South served as Senior Vice President and Chief Human Resources Officer at Mosaic Sales Solutions, a privately-held full-service marketing agency in Irving, Texas. She built the company's North America Human Resources department, focusing on attracting and training a dispersed workforce of over 10,000 employees hired to represent world-class brands at retail, in the community and on-line. In her role, Ms. South oversaw the company's Talent Acquisition, HR Services, and Organizational Effectiveness departments.

Ms. South also previously served as Vice President of Human Resources for Tenet Healthcare, initially for the Central Northeast Division, which included 38 hospitals and over 40,000 employees, and subsequently at the corporate level. She also led the Human Resources department for Aetna US Healthcare, where she oversaw a broad range of functions and designed human resources strategies to align with business practice areas.

Ms. South will report to Mr. Lucia and serve as a member of the Company's executive team.
