"We are very excited to have John join the Limoneira team. His proven customer and cross functional experience will help our company achieve its next level of growth," says John Carter, Limoneira Director of Global Sales. "John has a great reputation and will represent us well in the marketplace."

"As our One World of Citrus platform continues to grow, John's expertise and relationships will further our quality of service to our mainline customers as well as expand new niche markets throughout the Eastern US and Canada," said Alex Teague, Limoneira's Chief Operating Officer. "With increasing volume from our Chilean, South African and Mexican operations, John's role is key for our success."

"Limoneira has been a leader in the citrus industry for 124 years," says Caragliano. "They have a deep history, a growing global supply network, and are recognized as a leader in food safety and sustainability. I'm excited to be a part of their growth plans and moving their integrated supply chain model forward."
