

March 15, 2006

OpenTable.com Seats One Million Diners Each Month via Online Reservations

OpenTable, Inc. (www.opentable.com), the leading provider of free, online reservations for diners as well as guest and table management systems to restaurants, today announced that it has reached a record-breaking threshold, seating more than one million diners in February alone. In March, more than 1.1 million people are expected to dine out via OpenTable.com.

“More and more people are finding it easier to reserve online,” said acclaimed chef and restaurateur Michael Mina. “OpenTable lets you find a table and reserve instantly around the clock. I believe making restaurant reservations online is an important trend that is here to stay,” he added.

About OpenTable, Inc.

OpenTable is the leading supplier of restaurant reservation, table management and marketing software as well as the top provider of free, real-time online reservations to consumers, concierges and administrative assistants. More than 4,500 partner restaurants have adopted the OpenTable System, and more than 19 million diners have been seated through OpenTable.com.