In connection with this investment, Fosun and Fanhua entered into a strategic cooperation agreement to establish a long term strategic partnership to pursue strategic collaboration in areas such as insurance, health care, investment and financial services. Commenting on Fosun's strategic investment in Fanhua, Mr. Chunlin Wang, chief executive officer of Fanhua, said, "Fosun's strategic investment in Fanhua validates Fanhua's business value and its leading position in the professional insurance intermediary sector. It also constitutes a vote of confidence by Fosun in Fanhua's business and long-term growth prospects. Fosun is a world-class investment group with outstanding industrial integration capabilities and global asset allocation capabilities. Fosun has already invested in a number of insurance companies in China and abroad and its global footprint includes a number of new business areas including healthcare and Internet of Vehicles. We believe Fosun's investment in and cooperation with the Company will, in the short term, be instrumental to further diversifying our product offerings, improving customer experience and strengthening our leadership in the insurance intermediary sector. Over the long term, we believe this relationship provides strong momentum toward realizing our goal of becoming a diversified financial services provider and achieving sustainable and profitable growth.
