Consolidated Results

Laurans A. Mendelson, HEICO's Chairman and CEO, commented on the Company's second quarter results stating, "We are very pleased to report record quarterly results in consolidated net sales, operating income and net income driven by record net sales and operating income at both operating segments. Our outstanding performance principally reflects increased demand and operating efficiencies within both of our operating segments, as well as the excellent performance of our well managed and profitable fiscal 2016 acquisition.

Cash flow provided by operating activities remained very strong, totaling $97.7 million, or 113% of net income, in the first six months of fiscal 2017. For the full fiscal year 2017, we anticipate cash flow provided by operating activities to approximate 150% of net income.

Our total debt to shareholders' equity ratio was 40.5% as of April 30, 2017. Our net debt to shareholders' equity ratio was 37.3% as of April 30, 2017, with net debt (total debt less cash and cash equivalents) of $424.1 million principally incurred to fund acquisitions in fiscal 2017 and 2016. Additionally, we increased the aggregate principal amount of our revolving credit facility by $200 million to $1.0 billion through increased commitments from existing lenders in April 2017. We have no significant debt maturities until fiscal 2019 and plan to utilize our financial flexibility to aggressively pursue high quality acquisition opportunities to accelerate growth and maximize shareholder returns.

As we look ahead to the remainder of fiscal 2017, we anticipate net sales growth within the Flight Support Group and Electronic Technologies Group resulting from increased demand across the majority of our product lines. Also, we will continue our commitments to developing new products and services, further market penetration, and an aggressive acquisition strategy while maintaining our financial strength and flexibility.

Based on our current economic visibility, we are increasing our estimated consolidated fiscal 2017 year-over-year growth in net sales to 8% - 10% and in net income to 12% - 14%, up from prior growth estimates in net sales of 6% - 8% and in net income of 9% - 11%. Additionally, we now anticipate our consolidated operating margin to approximate 20%, depreciation and amortization expense to approximate $65 million, capital expenditures to approximate $35 million and cash flow from operations to approximate $270 million, up from the previous estimate of $260 million in cash flow from operations. These estimates include our recent acquisition of Air Cost Control (A2C), but exclude additional acquired businesses, if any."

Flight Support Group

Eric A. Mendelson, HEICO's Co-President and President of HEICO's Flight Support Group, commented on the Flight Support Group's second quarter results stating, "Our record quarterly results in net sales and operating income principally reflects organic growth within the Flight Support Group's aftermarket replacement parts and repair and overhaul parts and services product lines.

The Flight Support Group's net sales increased 5% to a record $231.8 million in the second quarter of fiscal 2017, up from $220.3 million in the second quarter of fiscal 2016. The Flight Support Group's net sales increased 7% to a record $452.7 million in the first six months of fiscal 2017, up from $424.9 million in the first six months of fiscal 2016. The increase in the second quarter and first six months of fiscal 2017 mainly reflects organic growth of 5% and 6%, respectively. The organic growth in the second quarter and first six months of fiscal 2017 is principally attributed to increased demand and new product offerings within our aftermarket replacement parts and repair and overhaul parts and services product lines, partially offset by lower net sales within our specialty products product line.

The Flight Support Group's operating income increased 8% to a record $44.7 million in the second quarter of fiscal 2017, up from $41.3 million in the second quarter of fiscal 2016. The Flight Support Group's operating income increased 12% to a record $86.1 million in the first six months of fiscal 2017, up from $76.8 million in the first six months of fiscal 2016. The increase in the second quarter and first six months of fiscal 2017 is mainly attributed to the previously mentioned net sales growth and efficiencies realized from the benefit of our growth in net sales on relatively consistent period-over-period selling, general and administrative expenses.

The Flight Support Group's operating margin increased to 19.3% in the second quarter of fiscal 2017, up from 18.8% in the second quarter of fiscal 2016. The Flight Support Group's operating margin increased to 19.0% in the first six months of fiscal 2017, up from 18.1% in the first six months of fiscal 2016. The increase in the second quarter and first six months of fiscal 2017 principally reflects the previously mentioned net sales growth and efficiencies realized within selling, general and administrative expenses.

With respect to the remainder of fiscal 2017, we now estimate mid to high-single digit growth in the Flight Support Group's net sales over fiscal 2016 levels and the full year Flight Support Group operating margin to approximate 19.0% - 19.5%. These estimates include our recent acquisition of A2C, but exclude additional acquired businesses, if any."

Electronic Technologies Group

Victor H. Mendelson, HEICO's Co-President and President of HEICO's Electronic Technologies Group, commented on the Electronic Technologies Group's second quarter results stating, "Our record quarterly results in net sales and operating income were driven principally by increased customer demand for the majority of our products, most notably for certain aerospace, other electronics and medical products.

The Electronic Technologies Group's net sales increased 6% to a record $141.2 million in the second quarter of fiscal 2017, up from $132.6 million in the second quarter of fiscal 2016. The Electronic Technologies Group's net sales increased 13% to a record $267.3 million in the first six months of fiscal 2017, up from $236.7 million in the first six months of fiscal 2016. The increase in the second quarter and first six months of fiscal 2017 principally reflects organic growth of 5% and 6%, respectively. The organic growth in the second quarter and first six months of fiscal 2017 resulted from increased demand in certain aerospace, other electronics and medical products. Additionally, the increase in the first six months of fiscal 2017 reflects the contribution from our profitable fiscal 2016 acquisition.

The Electronic Technologies Group's operating income increased 16% to a record $38.8 million in the second quarter of fiscal 2017, up from $33.4 million in the second quarter of fiscal 2016. The Electronic Technologies Group's operating income increased 22% to a record $67.9 million in the first six months of fiscal 2017, up from $55.7 million in the first six months of fiscal 2016. The increase in the second quarter and first six months of fiscal 2017 came primarily from the previously mentioned net sales growth and efficiencies realized from the benefit of our growth in net sales on relatively consistent period-over-period selling, general and administrative expenses. Further, the increase in operating income in the first six months of fiscal 2017 reflects a decrease in acquisition costs due to the first quarter of fiscal 2016 reflecting $3.1 million in acquisition costs associated with a prior year acquisition, partially offset by higher performance-based compensation expense.

The Electronic Technologies Group's operating margin improved to 27.5% in the second quarter of fiscal 2017, up from 25.2% in the second quarter of fiscal 2016. The Electronic Technologies Group's operating margin improved to 25.4% in the first six months of fiscal 2017, up from 23.5% in the first six months of fiscal 2016. The increase in the second quarter and first six months of fiscal 2017 principally reflects the previously mentioned net sales growth and efficiencies realized within selling, general and administrative expenses.

With respect to the remainder of fiscal 2017, we are continuing to estimate mid to high-single digit growth in the Electronic Technologies Group's net sales over fiscal 2016 levels, and now anticipate the full year Electronic Technologies Group's operating margin to approximate 25%. These estimates exclude additional acquired businesses, if any."
