Skullcandy® Partners with Rock My World, Inc. to Build on Human Potential Labs Program

PARK CITY, Utah, Aug. 18, 2016 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Skullcandy, Inc. (NASDAQ:SKUL), the original performance and lifestyle audio brand founded at the intersection of music, sports, technology, and creative culture, is excited to announce their partnership with Rock My World, Inc. Their first service, RockMyRun, works with the world's best DJs to curate playlists that react to physiological feedback. With this partnership, Skullcandy's Human Potential Labs continues its mission to deepen the understanding of how to improve performance through music.

Rock My World is a digital health and fitness company that increases performance and enjoyment by using real-time data from your body to intelligently adapt content as you move. They utilize human and algorithmic curation to focus on specific activities and tailor experiences fine-tuned to meet the needs of each user. In partnership with Skullcandy Human Potential Labs, the companies will draw on their expertise to help athletes improve performance.

"Skullcandy's Human Potential Lab is expanding the way we think about performance in exciting ways," said Rock My World CEO and Founder, Adam Riggs-Zeigen. "We're enthusiastic to partner with a company that is transforming the way athletes of all levels consume and respond to media."

"Rock My World will be instrumental in furthering our mission to learn what potential exists at the intersection of music and sport," said Emily Cook, Human Potential Program Manager. "After hundreds of hours testing various mixes of music with athletes of different skill levels and experience, the Rock My World teams are truly at the cutting edge of selecting the perfect mixes for our athletes."

Skullcandy and Rock My World will analyze which songs and musical elements are resulting in increased performance. The two will pair up to create individualized playlists for Skullcandy athletes, as well as learn more in the health and fitness space from each other. The learnings derived from Rock My World will be used long term in Skullcandy's Human Potential Labs research initiatives.
