SHAREHOLDER COMMUNICATION POLICY

Policy Statement

REVA Medical, Inc. (the “Company”) is committed to regularly communicating with its shareholders in a timely, accessible and clear manner with respect to both procedural matters and major issues affecting the Company. To achieve this, the Company communicates with shareholders through a range of forums and publications.

Electronic and Written Communications

The Company aims to ensure that its Annual Report provides shareholders with a good understanding of the Company’s activities, performance, and position for the previous financial year. Shareholders can elect to receive an electronic copy or a hard copy of the Annual Report.

As set out in the Company’s Continuous Disclosure Policy, the Company is committed to complying with, and taking a proactive approach in relation to, its continuous disclosure obligations, which extends to promptly providing the Australian Securities Exchange (“ASX”) with all necessary communications for publication on the ASX website.

The Company aims to provide shareholders with comprehensive and timely access to Company documents and releases through its website. The Company’s website will include the following:

- details of the Company’s Board and committee charters and key corporate governance policies;
- copies of all material information lodged with ASX;
- copies of all announcements, briefings, and speeches made to the market or media;
- the full text of notices of meetings and explanatory material; and
- advance notice of all open briefings to institutional investors and analysts, including presentation materials.

Other information may be provided to shareholders via periodic mail-outs. In addition, the Company allows shareholders to elect to receive e-mail communications where appropriate.

Shareholder Participation

The Company encourages shareholders to submit questions or requests for information directly to the Company Secretary or Chief Executive Officer.
