Item 8.01 Other Events

On May 8, 2017, Spirit Airlines, Inc. (the "Company") filed an action for a temporary restraining order against the Air Line Pilots Association, International and certain other named defendants in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida, in order to address what the Company believes to be improper activity under the Railway Labor Act while the Company and its pilots are in the process of federally-supervised mediation. The Company believes it will ultimately reach an agreement with its pilot union and will continue to work toward that goal.
