This will bring Spirit up to 65 daily flights from Fort Lauderdale to 54 destinations in the U.S., Caribbean and Latin America. Spirit's team at its hometown airport also keeps growing with 200 team members hired this year and 20 more in training right now.

"We applaud Spirit Airlines for their continued growth and commitment to FLL and our community," said Mark Gale CEO/Director of Aviation. "These new destinations will better serve the traveling public and bring new guests to South Florida with Spirit's ultra-low fare structure."
