Symmetry Electronics and Monolithic Power Systems Announce Distribution Partnership

SAN JOSE, California, Feb. 28, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- Monolithic Power Systems, Inc. (MPS) (Nasdaq: MPWR), a leading company in high-performance analog solutions, today announced a distribution agreement with Symmetry Electronics, a distributor specializing in the distribution of wireless and video semiconductor products. This association will give customers a wide range of high-performance power solutions for their designs.

Symmetry Electronics supports its customers with sales and engineering teams along with an established e-commerce site, empowering engineers with their latest wireless and video designs. This partnership between Symmetry and MPS will allow even more customers to reduce their total energy consumption with the green, practical, and compact solutions from MPS.

This distribution agreement allows MPS to leverage Symmetry's field engineering resources in the Americas. MPS's extensive power product offerings provide the most comprehensive power solutions to Symmetry's customer base.

"We are thrilled to partner with Symmetry Electronics," says Maurice Sciammas, Senior VP of Sales & Marketing. "I am confident that with Symmetry's deep knowledge in certain key markets, they will further complement and expedite MPS's growth in the Americas."

"We are very excited to announce our engagement with MPS. They are a world leader in the DC to DC low voltage market along with other power and sensor products. We will assist them in winning new designs in our wireless and video centric account base. They have a great team and we are looking forward to working closely with them across our network," said Joe Caravana, Co-Founder at Symmetry Electronics.
