StreetEasy Among 2015's 100 Best Companies to Work for in New York City

NEW YORK, Dec. 9, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- StreetEasy®, New York City's leading real estate marketplace, has been named one of Crain's New York Business Best Places to Work in New York City for the second year in a row. This year, StreetEasy ranked 36th on the list of the top 100 companies, up from 90th on the 2014 list.

Sponsored by Crain's New York Business magazine and the Best Companies Group, the annual list is comprised of 100 companies, each recognized and honored as the best employers in New York City. Companies are chosen from a two-part survey process, which involves employees evaluating the company's workplace policies, practices, philosophy, systems, demographics and overall employee experience.

Popular benefits and amenities that were cited by StreetEasy employees include the office's multiple common areas, which invite impromptu collaboration among teams. Employees also enjoy personal motorized sit-stand desks, fresh produce and snacks delivered weekly, company-expensed MTA transit memberships, a monthly health and fitness allowance, as well as weekly lunches catered from a rotating list of local restaurants.

"At StreetEasy we attribute our success to collaborative innovation, so receiving positive recognition about our workplace environment directly from our employees is incredibly rewarding," said Susan Daimler, General Manager of StreetEasy. "It's exciting to be able to move fast on big ideas, and I look forward to seeing what our highly talented team members will achieve in the coming year."

Located in Manhattan's Flatiron neighborhood, the StreetEasy office is home to a growing team of over 50 employees and currently has eight open positions. Information about current job openings at StreetEasy can be found on Zillow's jobs page: www.zillow.com/jobs/.
