VOTING

Only holders of record of Common Stock at the close of business on March 9, 2005, will be entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting or any adjournment thereof. On March 9, 2005, there were 62,750,590 shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding, and we had no other class of equity securities outstanding. Each share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote at the Annual Meeting on all matters properly presented.

The presence at the Annual Meeting of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast, represented in person or by proxy, will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting.

Assuming the presence of a quorum, the seven persons receiving the greatest number of votes of the Common Stock cast at the Annual Meeting by the holders of stock entitled to vote shall be elected as Directors of Ocwen. With regard to the election of Directors, shareholders may vote in favor of or withhold authority to vote for one or more nominees for Director. Votes that are withheld and broker non-votes in connection with the election of one or more nominees for Director will not be counted as votes cast for such individuals and accordingly will have no effect. Abstentions may be specified on all other proposals.

Assuming the presence of a quorum, the proposal to ratify the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as Ocwen's independent registered certified public accounting firm for 2005 and any other matter properly submitted to shareholders for their consideration at the Annual Meeting (other than the election of Directors) shall be approved if the votes cast by the holders of the shares represented at the Annual Meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter favoring the action exceed the votes cast opposing the action. Abstentions and broker non-votes will not be counted in determining the votes cast in connection with the proposal to ratify the appointment of Ocwen's independent registered certified public accounting firm and thus will have no effect on such proposals.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS
(Proposal One)

Ocwen's Bylaws provide that the Board of Directors of Ocwen shall be comprised of between three and eight members, with the exact number to be fixed by the Board of Directors. Pursuant to the Bylaws of Ocwen, on March 16, 2004, the Board of Directors fixed the number of Directors at seven. Directors are elected annually and hold office until the earlier of the election and qualification of their successors or their resignation and removal.

Accordingly, Ocwen will propose seven Directors for election at the Annual Meeting. All seven of the persons standing for election at the Annual Meeting are currently Directors of Ocwen. There are no arrangements or understandings between any nominee for Director and any other person pursuant to which such person was selected as a nominee. No Director is related to any other Director or Executive Officer of Ocwen by blood, marriage or adoption.

If any person named as nominee should be unable or unwilling to stand for election at the time of the Annual Meeting, the person or persons appointed as proxies will nominate and vote for a replacement nominee or nominees recommended by the Board of Directors. At this time, the Board of Directors knows of no reason why any of the nominees listed below would not be able to serve as Director if elected.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Meetings of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors of Ocwen held six meetings during 2004. No Director of Ocwen attended fewer than 75% of the aggregate of the number of meetings of the Board of Directors held during 2004 and the number of meetings held by all committees thereof on which he served during the period. Although Ocwen does not have a formal policy regarding Director attendance at the Annual Meeting, Directors are encouraged to attend. All seven members of the Board of Directors attended the 2004 Annual Meeting.

Independence of Directors

Ocwen's Corporate Governance Guidelines provide that the Board of Directors must be comprised of a majority of Directors who qualify as independent Directors under the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange and applicable law.

The Board reviews annually the relationships that each Director has with the Company (either directly or as a partner, shareholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with the Company). Following such review, only those Directors who the Board affirmatively determines, through categorical questionnaire responses that follow the independence standards as set forth by the New York Stock Exchange, have no material relationship with the Company are considered independent Directors, subject to additional qualifications prescribed under the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange or applicable law. Our current Board of Directors has determined that Messrs. Korn, Lacy, Martin and Wish are independent in accordance with applicable laws and the New York Stock Exchange listing standards.

Committees of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors of Ocwen has established an Executive Committee, an Audit Committee, a Compensation Committee and a Nomination/Governance Committee. A brief description of these Committees is set forth below.

Executive Committee. The Executive Committee is generally responsible to act on behalf of the Board of Directors during the intervals between meetings of the Board of Directors. This Committee did not meet during 2004.

Audit Committee. The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors manages Ocwen's independent registered certified public accounting firm, reviews and advises the Board of Directors with respect to reports by Ocwen's independent registered certified public accounting firm and monitors Ocwen's compliance with laws and regulations applicable to Ocwen's operations including the evaluation of significant matters relating to the financial reporting process and system of internal accounting controls of Ocwen and the review of the scope and results of the annual audit conducted by the independent registered certified public accounting firm. Each member of the Audit Committee is independent as defined in regulations adopted by the Securities and Exchange Commission and the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange. The Board of Directors has determined that all members of the Audit Committee are financially literate. Further, the Board of Directors has determined that Ronald J. Korn possesses accounting or related financial management expertise within the meaning of the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange and qualifies as an audit committee financial expert, as that term is defined in Securities and Exchange Commission rules implementing requirements of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. The Audit Committee operates under a written charter, a copy of which is available on Ocwen's web site at www.ocwen.com. This Committee met seven times during 2004.

Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors oversees Ocwen's compensation and employee benefit plans and practices. The Compensation Committee also evaluates and makes recommendations to the Board of Directors for human resource and compensation matters relating to the Executive Officers of Ocwen. Each member of the Compensation Committee is independent as defined in the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange. The Compensation Committee operates under a written charter approved by the whole Board of Directors, a copy of which is available on Ocwen's web site at www.ocwen.com. This Committee met four times during 2004.

Nomination/Governance Committee. The Nomination/Governance Committee of the Board of Directors recommends to the Board individuals qualified to serve as Directors of Ocwen and on committees of the Board; advises the Board with respect to Board composition, procedures and committees; develops and presents to the Board a set of corporate governance principles; and oversees the evaluation of the Board and Ocwen's management. Each member of the Nomination/Governance Committee is independent as defined in the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange. The Nomination/Governance Committee operates under a written charter, a copy of which is available on Ocwen's web site as www.ocwen.com. This Committee met one time during 2004.

It is the policy of the Nomination/Governance Committee to consider candidates for Director recommended by shareholders. In evaluating nominees for Director, the Nomination/Governance Committee takes into account the applicable requirements for Directors under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange. In addition, the Nomination/Governance Committee takes into account the needs of the Company, as well as such factors as knowledge, experience, skills, expertise and diversity. Should a shareholder recommend a candidate for Director, the Nomination/Governance Committee would evaluate such candidate in the same way as it evaluates any other nominee.

Shareholders wishing to recommend persons for consideration by the Nomination/Governance Committee as nominees for election to the Board of Directors can do so by writing to the Secretary of Ocwen Financial Corporation, 1675 Palm Beach Lakes Boulevard, West Palm Beach, Florida 33401, giving each proposed nominee's name, biographical data and qualifications. The recommendation should also include a written statement from the proposed nominee consenting to be named as a nominee, and, if nominated and elected, to serve as a Director. For consideration, Ocwen must receive such recommendations by November 1, 2005.

Corporate Governance Guidelines

The Corporate Governance Guidelines adopted by the Board of Directors provide guidelines for Ocwen and the Board of Directors to ensure effective corporate governance. The Corporate Governance Guidelines cover topics including, but not limited to, Director qualification standards, Board and committee composition, Director responsibilities, Director access to management and independent advisors, Director compensation, Director orientation and continuing education, management succession and annual performance evaluation of the Board.

The Nomination/Governance Committee will review Ocwen's Governance Guidelines at least once a year and, if necessary, recommend changes to the Board. The Governance Guidelines are available on our web site at www.ocwen.com and are available to any shareholder who requests them by writing to the Secretary of Ocwen at 1675 Palm Beach Lakes Boulevard, West Palm Beach, Florida 33401.

Executive Sessions of Non-Management Directors

Non-management Directors meet in executive session without management on a regularly scheduled basis at least four times each year. A non-management Director presides on a rotational basis as determined by the Board at each executive session.

Communications with Directors

Any shareholder or other interested party who desires to contact the Board of Directors or any individual Director regarding Ocwen may do so by mail addressed to the Secretary of Ocwen at 1675 Palm Beach Lakes Boulevard, West Palm Beach, Florida 33401. Communications received in writing are distributed to the Board or to individual Directors as appropriate depending on the facts and circumstances outlined in the communication received.

Code of Ethics

Ocwen has adopted a Code of Ethics that applies to Directors, Officers and employees of the Company, as required by the New York Stock Exchange rules. Any waivers from the Code of Ethics must be approved by the Board of Directors or a Board committee and must be promptly disclosed to shareholders. This Code of Ethics is available on www.ocwen.com and is available to any shareholder who requests a copy of the Code of Ethics by writing to the Secretary of Ocwen at 1675 Palm Beach Lakes Boulevard, West Palm Beach, Florida 33401.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS COMPENSATION

The non-employee Directors of Ocwen are currently compensated by delivering to each a total annual value of $55,000, which is payable $20,000 in shares of Common Stock pursuant to a Directors Stock Plan adopted by the Board of Directors and shareholders of Ocwen in July 1996 and $35,000 cash (which may be prorated for a Director serving less than a full one-year term, as in the case of a Director joining the Board of Directors after an Annual Meeting of Shareholders), subject to review and adjustment by the Board of Directors from time to time. The Directors of Ocwen who are also employees currently each receive a total annual value of $30,000, which is payable $15,000 in shares of Common Stock pursuant to a Directors Stock Plan adopted by the Board of Directors and shareholders of Ocwen in July 1996 and $15,000 cash, subject to review and adjustment by the Board of Directors from time to time. In March of 2005, the Board of Directors adopted a Deferred Compensation Plan for Directors, pursuant to which Directors will be permitted to defer the receipt of compensation granted under the Directors Stock Plan. Directors serving as committee chairpersons, with the exception of the Audit Committee chairperson, receive an additional $5,000 in cash compensation, while the Audit Committee chairperson receives an additional $10,000 in cash compensation. Audit Committee members receive an additional $2,500 in cash compensation. Such payment is made after the annual organizational meeting of the Board of Directors, which follows the Annual Meeting of Shareholders of Ocwen. During 2004, 9,072 shares of Common Stock were granted to the seven Directors of Ocwen.

The number of shares issued pursuant to the Directors Stock Plan is based on the "fair market value" of the Common Stock on the date of grant. The term "fair market value" is defined in the Directors Stock Plan to mean the average of the high and low prices of the Common Stock as reported on the New York Stock Exchange on the relevant date. Shares issued pursuant to the Directors Stock Plan, other than the committee chair fee shares, are subject to forfeiture during the 12 full calendar months following election or appointment to the Board of Directors or a committee thereof, if the Director does not attend an aggregate of at least 75% of all meetings of the Board of Directors and committees thereof of which the Director is a member during such period.

All of the Directors for Ocwen also serve on the Board of Directors of Ocwen Federal Bank FSB. During 2004, the Bank compensated its non-management Directors by delivering to each a total annual value of $10,000 in cash, paid in equal quarterly installments in arrears, in respect of their service on the Bank's Board of Directors. During 2004, an aggregate of $181,250 in cash was paid to eight Directors of Ocwen in respect of their service as members of the Board of Directors of the Bank, including as chairman of the committees of the Bank's Board of Directors.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

Determinations regarding compensation of Ocwen's employees are made by the Compensation Committee. No member of the Committee is or at any time was an employee of Ocwen or any subsidiary, nor did any member of the Committee have an interest in a transaction which would require disclosure hereunder.

Report of the Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors is responsible for establishing management compensation policies and procedures to be reflected in the compensation program offered to the Executive Officers of Ocwen and the Bank. The Committee shares jurisdiction with the full Board of Directors over the administration of and grants under the 1991 Non-Qualified Stock Option Plan.

General Compensation Policies. The broad general salary and benefit guidelines are determined by the Committee. Ocwen seeks to provide executives with long-term wealth accumulation capability, conditional upon personal performance, individual service longevity and consistent high level financial performance of Ocwen. With respect to Ocwen's Officers other than Mr. William C. Erbey, the Committee considered salary and bonus recommendations prepared by Mr. William C. Erbey or other Executive Officers to determine fiscal 2004 compensation. The salary adjustment recommendations were based on Ocwen's overall performance in the past year and an analysis of compensation levels necessary to maintain and attract quality personnel. It is through this process that Ocwen is able to compete for and retain talented executives who are critical to Ocwen's long-term success and align the interests of those executives with the long-term interests of Ocwen's shareholders.

Annual Incentive Compensation. Ocwen's primary incentive compensation plan for executives is the 1998 Annual Incentive Plan, as amended. Pursuant to the current plan, a participant can earn cash, restricted stock and stock option awards as determined by the Compensation Committee. The awards are based on objective performance criteria established by the Committee pursuant to the Plan which includes growth in our core businesses, reduction in non-core assets, cost savings through Six Sigma initiatives and meeting budget objectives. Each participant has a targeted annual incentive award that is expressed as a percentage of total target compensation and varies with the participant's level of responsibility. At the executive level, 20-60% of each executive's total target compensation is at risk and payable only upon achievement of certain minimum Company and individual performance levels. The incentive awards are structured so that the compensation opportunities for executives are related to the level of business unit performance actually achieved.

Other Compensation. The Compensation Committee's policy with respect to other employee benefit plans is to provide competitive benefits to employees of Ocwen and the Bank, including Executive Officers. A competitive comprehensive benefit program is essential to achieving the goal of attracting and retaining highly qualified employees.

Tax Considerations. Under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), the tax deduction by corporate taxpayers is limited with respect to the compensation of certain Executive Officers to $1 million per covered executive unless such compensation is based upon the attainment of performance objectives meeting certain regulatory criteria or is otherwise excluded from the limitation. Ocwen obtained shareholder approval of the 1998 Annual Incentive Plan and all amendments thereto and the LTIP in order to qualify awards under such plans as performance-based compensation under Section 162(m) of the Code. It is the Compensation Committee's intention to qualify all performance-based compensation for the exclusion from the deductibility limitation of 162(m), except in situations where qualifying compensation for the exclusion would be inconsistent with the overall best interest of Ocwen.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation. In determining the overall compensation package for the Chief Executive Officer, the Committee considered the performance of the Chief Executive Officer and the financial performance achieved by Ocwen during the past fiscal year. For the CEO, incentive compensation for 2004 was based largely on performance against specific goals, including growth of our loan servicing business and growth in our other core businesses, reduction in non-core assets and cost savings, including those attributable to increased utilization of our India operations centers and to our Six Sigma initiatives.

RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM
(Proposal Two)

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of Ocwen has appointed PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, independent registered certified public accountants, to be Ocwen's independent registered certified public accounting firm for the year ending December 31, 2005, and has further directed that the selection of the independent registered certified public accounting firm be submitted for ratification by the shareholders at the Annual Meeting.

Representatives of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP will be present at the Annual Meeting, will be given the opportunity to make a statement, if they so desire, and will be available to respond to appropriate questions from shareholders.

The Board of Directors unanimously recommends that shareholders vote FOR the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as the independent registered certified public accounting firm for 2005.

Report of the Audit Committee

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors has:

- o Reviewed and discussed with management Ocwen's audited financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2004;
- o Discussed with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, Ocwen's independent registered certified public accounting firm, the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, "Communication with Audit Committees;" and
- o Received and reviewed the written disclosures and the letter from PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP required by the Independence Standards Board's Independence Standard No. 1, "Independence Discussions with Audit Committees" and discussed with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP their independence.

In reliance on the review and discussion referred to above, the Committee recommends to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in Ocwen's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004.

PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP Fees

The following table shows the aggregate fees billed to Ocwen for professional services by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP for fiscal years 2004 and 2003:

	Fiscal 2004	Fiscal 2003
Audit Fees	$ 2,038,655	$ 1,035,119
Audit-Related Fees	1,078,106	561,079
Tax Fees	64,884	90,409
All Other Fees	6,810	17,882
Total	$ 3,188,455	$ 1,704,489

Audit Fees. This category includes the aggregate fees billed for professional services rendered for the audits of Ocwen's consolidated financial statements for fiscal years 2004 and 2003, for the reviews of the financial statements included in Ocwen's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q during fiscal 2004 and 2003 and for services that are normally provided by the independent registered certified public accounting firm in connection with statutory and regulatory filings or engagements for the relevant fiscal years.

Audit-Related Fees. This category includes the aggregate fees billed in each of the last two fiscal years for assurance and related services by the independent registered certified public accounting firm that are reasonably related to the performance of the audits or reviews of the financial statements and are not reported above under "Audit Fees" and generally consist of fees for other attest engagements under professional auditing standards, internal control-related matters, audits of employee benefit plans and due diligence.

Tax Fees. This category includes the aggregate fees billed in each of the last two fiscal years for professional services rendered by the independent registered certified public accounting firm for tax compliance, tax planning and tax advice. Of these amounts, $53,509 and $51,889 were related to tax compliance services for 2004 and 2003, respectively.

All Other Fees. This category includes the aggregate fees billed in each of the last two fiscal years for products and services provided by the independent registered certified public accounting firm that are not reported above under "Audit Fees," "Audit-Related Fees" or "Tax Fees."

The Audit Committee considered the compatibility of the non-audit-related services provided by and fees paid to PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP in 2004 and the proposed services for 2005 and determined that such services and fees are compatible with the independence of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP.

The Audit Committee is required to pre-approve the audit and non-audit services performed by the independent registered certified public accounting firm in order to assure that the provision of such services does not impair the auditor's independence. Unless a type of service to be provided by the independent auditor has received general pre-approval, it will require specific pre-approval by the Audit Committee.
