Journey to Un'Goro thrusts players into a land of primordial wonder where ancient elementals, lethal flora, and fierce predators have roamed since the dawn of time. Being an apex predator in such an unforgiving ecosystem has its benefits—the crater's dinosaurs have learned to adapt to any threat. Adapting allows a minion to take on new properties or powers to better deal with their prey, so don't let your guard down! As an enticement for those brave or curious enough to venture deep into Un'Goro, a mysterious new bounty awaits: Quest cards. These Legendary spells will always appear in the player's starting hand, and—once their requirements are met—grant incredible rewards.

"With dinosaurs and elemental minions and the new Adapt and Quest mechanics, Journey to Un'Goro begins the next Hearthstone chapter with a prehistoric punch," said Mike Morhaime, CEO and cofounder of Blizzard Entertainment. "We can't wait to see the strategies that deck-builders uncover as they explore the jungles of Un'Goro."

Journey to Un'Goro is available now for Windows® and Mac® PCs; Windows, iOS, and Android™ tablets; and iOS and Android phones. Card packs can be purchased individually or in discounted bundles from the in-game Shop for gold or real-world currency at the same price as all other Hearthstone card packs. Players now have the chance to win Journey to Un'Goro card packs as quest rewards or prizes in the Arena, and can also craft cards from the expansion by using Arcane Dust collected from disenchanting unwanted cards.
