GET AWAY TO TAMPA BAY! ALLEGiant AIR ANNOUNCES NONSTOP FLIGHTS FROM TOLEDO TO TAMPA BAY AREA FOR JUST $59*

(Toledo, Ohio)--- Toledo get ready for sunshine! The low-cost airline, Allegiant Air, LLC, today announces new, nonstop jet service to Florida's Tampa Bay area from Toledo, Ohio beginning Dec. 12. The low-fare carrier will celebrate the convenient new service to the St. Petersburg-Clearwater International Airport with sunny introductory fares as low as $59* each way.

With an average 361 days of sunshine each year, the St. Petersburg/Clearwater area is considered the most popular vacation destination on Florida's West Coast. The area was named among the top beaches in the United States and is one of a few destinations to have received the "Blue Wave Award" from the Clean Beaches Council. In addition to pristine beaches, visitors are within minutes of shopping, amazing golf courses and award-winning resort and dining experiences.

"We are extremely pleased to expand the Allegiant brand of low-fare, nonstop jet service within the Toledo community," Maurice J. Gallagher, Jr., Allegiant Air president and CEO, said. "Northwest Ohio and Southeast Michigan residents are now able to enjoy a convenient low-cost vacation getaway to the sunny beaches of the Tampa Bay area."

The self-proclaimed "Official Airline for Sunshine" will launch the new scheduled service from Toledo Express Airport to St. Petersburg-Clearwater International Airport with two flights weekly. With service Tuesday and Friday, flights will depart Toledo at 10:30 a.m. arriving in Tampa Bay at 1:10 p.m. Flights leaving Tampa Bay will depart at 7:20 a.m. arriving in Toledo at 9:55 a.m. (all flight times are local.)

"In less than a year of serving the Toledo market, we are thrilled that Allegiant Air will be expanding service to Tampa Bay/St. Petersburg," stated Toledo-Lucas County Port Authority Airports Director, Paul Toth, Jr. "The new Florida service will be a welcomed addition for area travelers since the Greater Tampa Bay Area has become one of the most requested destinations over the last couple of years. Only through the commitment of both Allegiant Air and the Tampa/St. Petersburg Airport Authority has this service become a reality." The airline commented that market research and input from local community leaders indicate the entire Northwest Ohio and Southeast Michigan area will welcome the new nonstop flights and low fares to the Tampa Bay area as an alternative to connecting flights and long drives to other airports. Allegiant will utilize 130-seat, MD-80 series, jet-aircraft on the route. Allegiant Air began nonstop, low-cost service to Orlando from Toledo Dec. 15, 2005.

The Allegiant Vacations division of the company will allow customers to double their sunshine fun with complete vacation packages at some of the area's premier resorts, including Alden Beach Resort, Belleview Biltmore, Don CeSar, Hilton Clearwater Beach, Innisbrook Beach Resort, Marriott Suites on Sand Key and Sheraton Sand Key. Low-cost packages are available to include not only air and hotel, but car rentals for additional savings.

Reservations may be made through the company's website at www.allegiantair.com, the airline's Reservations Center at 702-505-8888 or professional travel agents.

Allegiant's $59* one-way introductory fare is limited, not available on all flights and must be purchased by Oct. 7, 2006, for travel through Jan. 31, 2007. After the introductory fare period, regular one-way fares on the route start as low as $79 one-way.

About the offer: *All fares are limited, one-way and are non-refundable. Prices do not include PFC, segment tax or Sept. 11 security fee of up to $10.30 per segment. Travel purchased through an Allegiant Air call center will cost an additional $5.00 per segment. A segment is defined as one take-off and one landing. Fares are non-refundable. Seats are limited and subject to availability. Restrictions apply. Offer not available November 22-27; December 22-31; and January 1-6, 2007.
