GET AWAY TO TAMPA BAY! ALLEGiant AIR ANNOUNCES NONSTOP FLIGHTS FROM LANSING TO TAMPA BAY AREA FOR JUST $59*

(Lansing, Mich.)--- Lansing get ready for sunshine! The low-cost airline, Allegiant Air, LLC, today announces new, nonstop jet service to Florida's Tampa Bay area from Lansing, Mich. beginning Dec. 14. The low-fare carrier will celebrate the convenient new service to the St. Petersburg-Clearwater International Airport with sunny introductory fares as low as $59* each way.

With an average 361 days of sunshine each year, the St. Petersburg/Clearwater area is considered the most popular vacation destination on Florida's West Coast. The area was named among the top beaches in the United States and is one of a few destinations to have received the "Blue Wave Award" from the Clean Beaches Council. In addition to pristine beaches, visitors are within minutes of shopping, amazing golf courses and award-winning resort and dining experiences.

"We are extremely pleased to expand the Allegiant brand of low-fare, nonstop jet service within the Lansing community," Maurice J. Gallagher, Jr., Allegiant Air president and CEO, said. "Capital City residents are now able to enjoy a convenient low-cost vacation getaway to the sunny beaches of the Tampa Bay area."

The self-proclaimed "Official Airline for Sunshine" will launch the new scheduled service from Lansing Capital City Airport to St. Petersburg-Clearwater International Airport with two flights weekly. With service Monday and Thursday, flights will depart Lansing at 10:35 a.m. arriving in Tampa Bay at 1:20 p.m. Flights leaving Tampa Bay will depart at 7:20 a.m. arriving in Lansing at 10 a.m. (all flight times are local.)

"Lansing's Capital City Airport is pleased to be working with Allegiant Air to expand its Mid-Michigan air service to St. Petersburg," said Robert F. Selig, AAE, Executive Director of Capital Region Airport Authority. "Allegiant Air continues to demonstrate its commitment to Michigan travelers with St. Petersburg being the third destination offered from the airport behind Las Vegas and Orlando. The St. Petersburg service addresses the critical need for service to western Florida which is now the home for many retirees and vacationers from the State of Michigan." The airline commented that market research and input from local community leaders indicate the entire Mid-Michigan community will welcome the new nonstop flights and low fares to the Tampa Bay area as an alternative to connecting flights and long drives to other airports. Allegiant will utilize 130-seat, MD-80 series, jet-aircraft on the route. Allegiant Air began nonstop, low-cost service to Las Vegas from Lansing July 10, 2003 and service to Orlando May 26, 2005.

The Allegiant Vacations division of the company will allow customers to double their sunshine fun with complete vacation packages at some of the area's premier resorts, including Alden Beach Resort, Belleview Biltmore, Don CeSar, Hilton Clearwater Beach, Innisbrook Beach Resort, Marriott Suites on Sand Key and Sheraton Sand Key. Low-cost packages are available to include not only air and hotel, but car rentals for additional savings.

Reservations may be made through the company's website at www.allegiantair.com, the airline's Reservations Center at 702-505-8888 or professional travel agents.

Allegiant's $59* one-way introductory fare is limited, not available on all flights and must be purchased by Oct. 7, 2006, for travel through Jan. 31, 2007. After the introductory fare period, regular one-way fares on the route start as low as $79 one-way.

About the offer: *All fares are limited, one-way and are non-refundable. Prices do not include PFC, segment tax or Sept. 11 security fee of up to $10.30 per segment. Travel purchased through an Allegiant Air call center will cost an additional $5.00 per segment. A segment is defined as one take-off and one landing. A convenience fee of $7.50 per traveling customer will be applied when booked at www.allegiantair.com or through an Allegiant Air call center. Fares are non-refundable. Seats are limited and subject to availability. Restrictions apply. Offer not available November 22-27; December 22-31; and January 1-6, 2007.
