Analogic Pays Tribute to Board Member Kevin Melia

PEABODY, Mass., June 20, 2014 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Analogic Corporation (Nasdaq:ALOG), enabling the world's medical imaging and aviation security technology, regrets to announce the passing of Kevin Melia, Analogic Director. Mr. Melia passed away on June 17, 2014, after battling a brief illness.

Analogic's Chairman of the Board, Ed Voboril, commented, "Kevin was a trusted friend and colleague. His wit and his wisdom were treasured by all of us. He will be truly missed."

Jim Green, Analogic's president and CEO, added, "Kevin's contribution to our Board has been immeasurable. Since joining our Board in 2009, he has provided invaluable guidance to me and our senior management team. He was a good and valued friend. Our thoughts and prayers go out to his family, and we will miss him."

Kevin Melia joined Analogic's Board of Directors in April 2009 and was a member of the audit and compensation committees. In addition to his service at Analogic, Mr. Melia had a long and distinguished career as a board member and senior executive across a wide range of companies and industries. At the time of his passing, Mr. Melia also served on the boards of RadiSys Corporation, DCC plc, Greatbatch, Inc., Manugistics Corporation, and Eircom, Inc.
