

RADIUS HEALTH, INC.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE CHARTER

A. Purpose

The purpose of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Radius Health, Inc. (the “Company”) is to oversee the discharge of the responsibilities of the Board relating to compensation of the Company’s executive officers.

B. Structure and Membership

1. Number. The Compensation Committee shall consist of at least two members of the Board.
2. Independence. Except as otherwise permitted by the applicable NASDAQ rules, each member of the Compensation Committee shall be an “independent director” as defined by NASDAQ Rule 5605(a)(2) and otherwise meet the applicable criteria for independence set forth in Rule 5605(d)(2) of the NASDAQ rules.
3. Chair. Unless the Board elects a Chair of the Compensation Committee, the Compensation Committee shall elect a Chair by majority vote.
4. Compensation. The compensation of Compensation Committee members shall be as determined by the Board.
5. Selection and Removal. Members of the Compensation Committee shall be appointed by the Board, upon the recommendation of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. The Board may remove members of the Compensation Committee from such committee, with or without cause.

C. Authority and Responsibilities

General

The Compensation Committee shall discharge its responsibilities, and shall assess the information provided to it by the Company’s management and others, in accordance with its business judgment.

Compensation Matters

1. Executive Officer Compensation. At least annually, the Compensation Committee shall review and approve, or recommend for approval by the Board, the compensation of the Company’s Chief Executive Officer (the “CEO”) and the Company’s other executive officers, including salary, bonus and incentive compensation levels; deferred compensation; executive perquisites; equity compensation (including awards to induce employment); severance arrangements; change-in-control benefits and other forms of executive officer compensation. The Compensation Committee shall meet without the presence of executive officers when approving or deliberating on CEO compensation but may, in its discretion, invite the CEO to be present during the approval of, or deliberations with respect to, other executive officer compensation.
2. Evaluation of Senior Executives. The Compensation Committee shall be responsible for overseeing the evaluation of the Company’s senior executives. In conjunction with the Audit Committee in the case of the evaluation of the senior financial management, the Compensation Committee shall determine the nature and frequency of the evaluation and the persons subject to the evaluation, supervise the conduct of the evaluation and prepare assessments of the performance of the Company’s senior executives, to be discussed periodically with the Board.
3. Plan Recommendations and Approvals. The Compensation Committee shall periodically review and approve new compensation and employee benefit plans that are not subject to stockholder approval or approval by the Board, review and approve material changes to existing compensation and employee benefit plans to the extent stockholder or Board approval of such changes is not required, make recommendations to the Board with respect to the Company's incentive compensation plans and equity-based plans subject to stockholder or Board approval, oversee the activities of the individuals and committees responsible for overseeing the Company's compensation and employee benefit plans and discharge any responsibilities imposed on the Compensation Committee by any of these plans.

4. Administration of Equity-Based Plans. The Compensation Committee shall discharge any responsibilities imposed on the Compensation Committee by and exercise all rights, authority and functions of the Board under all of the Company's stock option, stock incentive, employee stock purchase and other equity-based plans, including without limitation, the authority to interpret the terms thereof, to grant options thereunder and to make stock awards thereunder, except to the extent the terms of any such plan require administration by the full Board; provided, however, that, except as otherwise expressly authorized to do so by this charter, any such plan or a resolution of the Board, the Compensation Committee shall not be authorized to amend any such plan. To the extent permitted by and consistent with applicable law and the provisions of a given equity-based plan, the Compensation Committee may delegate to one or more executive officers of the Company the power to grant options or other stock awards pursuant to such equity-based plan to employees of the Company or any subsidiary of the Company who are not directors or executive officers of the Company. The Compensation Committee shall approve, or recommend for approval by the Board, any inducement awards to be granted in reliance on the exemption from stockholder approval contained in NASDAQ Rule 5635(c)(4).
5. Director Compensation. At least annually, the Compensation Committee shall review and make recommendations to the Board with respect to director compensation.
6. Review and Discussion of Compensation Discussion and Analysis; Recommendation to Board. To the extent that the Company is required to include the "Compensation Discussion and Analysis" required by Item 402(b) of Regulation S-K ("CD&A") in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K, proxy statement on Schedule 14A or information statement on Schedule 14C (collectively, the "Proxy Documents"), the Compensation Committee shall review and discuss with management the Company's CD&A and shall consider whether it will recommend to the Board that the Company's CD&A be included in the Proxy Documents.
7. Compensation Committee Report. The Compensation Committee shall prepare the annual Compensation Committee Report required by Item 407(e)(5) of Regulation S-K.
8. Compensation Consultants, Counsel and Other Advisors. The Compensation Committee shall have the sole authority to retain, oversee and terminate any compensation consultants, legal counsel and other advisors of the Compensation Committee to assist in the execution of the Committee's responsibilities. In connection with retaining or obtaining the advice of such consultants, counsel and advisors, other than in-house legal counsel, the Compensation Committee shall take into consideration the factors affecting independence required by applicable laws, U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission rules and NASDAQ rules. The Compensation Committee shall be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the work of any consultants, counsel and advisors that it retains. The Compensation Committee is empowered, without further action by the Board, to cause the Company to pay the compensation of such consultants, counsel and advisors as established by the Compensation Committee.
9. Additional Duties. The Compensation Committee shall have such other duties as may be delegated from time to time by the Board.

D. Procedures and Administration

1. Meetings. The Compensation Committee shall meet as often as it deems necessary in order to perform its responsibilities. The Compensation Committee may also act by unanimous written consent in lieu of a meeting. The Compensation Committee shall keep such records of its meetings as it shall deem appropriate.
2. Subcommittees. The Compensation Committee may form and delegate authority to one or more subcommittees as it deems appropriate from time to time under the circumstances (including (a) a subcommittee consisting of a single member and (b) a subcommittee consisting of at least two members, each of whom qualifies as a “non-employee director,” as such term is defined from time to time in Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules and regulations thereunder, and an “outside director,” as such term is defined from time to time in Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the rules and regulations thereunder).
3. Reports to Board. The Compensation Committee shall report regularly to the Board.
4. Charter. The Compensation Committee shall annually review and reassess the adequacy of this Charter and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.
5. Investigations. The Compensation Committee shall have the authority to conduct or authorize investigations into any matters within the scope of its responsibilities as it shall deem appropriate, including the authority to request any officer, employee or advisor of the Company to meet with the Compensation Committee or any advisors engaged by the Compensation Committee.
6. Self-Evaluation. The Compensation Committee shall annually evaluate its own performance and report to the Board on that self-evaluation.
7. Say on Pay and Risk Considerations. The Compensation Committee shall, in fulfilling its duties and responsibilities, consider the results of the most recent stockholder advisory vote on executive compensation, if any, required by Section 14A of the Exchange Act and consider the relationship between risk management policies or practices and compensation.
