Veasey, who joined Booz Allen in 2015, currently serves as the Director of Mergers and Acquisitions, leading acquisition execution, and designing and implementing the firm's capital allocation strategy. Prior to Booz Allen, Veasey was an investment banker covering the Industrials sector at Deutsche Bank in New York, executing debt, equity and merger transactions for large, corporate clients. Previously, Veasey served as a Marine Reconnaissance Platoon Commander with multiple deployments to the Middle East following his graduation from the United States Naval Academy in 2002.

"Nick brings an invaluable mix of professional experience to his new investor relations role that will serve the firm well as we execute the next phases of our growth strategy," Howell said. "We offer tremendous thanks to Curt Riggle, who has built our investor program from the ground up following our IPO. Through this work, he has helped to articulate Booz Allen's exciting growth story and has generated great respect for the firm and himself in the industry. We look forward to benefiting from Curt's continuing contribution to our success in his new role."
