Global Eagle, Time Inc. Sign New Distribution Agreement "TIME Flies" To Bring Iconic Programming to Travelers in the Air and At Sea

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 25, 2017 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Global Eagle Entertainment Inc. (NASDAQ:ENT) and Time Inc. (NYSE:TIME) have signed a worldwide agreement that will allow Global Eagle to distribute Time Inc.-produced programming to airline, cruise and maritime audiences under the newly created "TIME Flies" brand.

The first two unique products under TIME Flies are films from TIME's celebrated multimedia project "100 Photos: The Most Influential Images of All Time," and "A Year In Space," an Emmy-nominated series originally appearing on Time.com chronicling NASA astronaut Scott Kelly and his record-breaking journey aboard the International Space Station.

"This is a landmark agreement that brings exciting content to air and sea travelers and highlights the depth of Global Eagle's content sources," said Global Eagle Senior Vice President Jim Griffiths. "The fact that Time Inc. – with brands that include TIME, SPORTS ILLUSTRATED, PEOPLE and FORTUNE – has chosen Global Eagle as a partner is a wonderful endorsement of our distribution leadership."

"TIME Flies' will be a great addition to Global Eagle's Content-To-Go platform, allowing passengers to enjoy this amazing content throughout their entire travel journey," said Alexis Steinman, Global Eagle Senior Vice President Digital Media Solutions.

"At Time Inc., we are always looking to expand our storytelling to new platforms," said Ian Orefice, Vice President and Head of Programming at Time Inc. Studios. "We are excited to bring TIME's award-winning content to new audiences who are traveling in the air and at sea."

The films from "100 Photos" feature subjects such as Harry Benson's memorable shot of the Beatles pillow fight; Ron Galella's iconic photograph of Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis walking the streets of New York City; Abraham Zapruder's images of John F. Kennedy's assassination; Nat Fein's shot of Babe Ruth bowing out at Yankee Stadium; and many more.
