Penn Virginia Corporation Announces Suspension of Trading and Commencement of NYSE Delisting Procedures; Common Stock Expected to Begin Trading on the OTC Pink

RADNOR, Pa., Jan. 12, 2016 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Penn Virginia Corporation (NYSE:PVA) today announced that it received notification from the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) that the NYSE had determined to commence proceedings to delist the Company's common stock as a result of the NYSE's determination that the Company's common stock was no longer suitable for listing on the NYSE based on "abnormally low" price levels, pursuant to Section 802.01D of the NYSE's Listed Company Manual. The NYSE also suspended trading in the Company's common stock effective immediately.

The NYSE stated that it will apply to the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) to delist the Company's common stock upon completion of all applicable procedures, including any appeal by the Company of the NYSE's determination. The Company does not intend to appeal the delisting determination. The Company anticipates that its common stock will begin trading on the OTC Pink on January 13, 2016, under the symbol "PVAH". The transition to the over-the-counter markets will not affect the Company's business operations. The Company will remain subject to the public reporting requirements of the SEC following the transfer.
