Penn Virginia Corporation Announces Closing of Sale of East Texas Assets

Pro Forma Liquidity of Approximately $260 Million and Pro Forma Total Debt Ratio of 3.6 Times

RADNOR, Pa., Aug. 31, 2015 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Penn Virginia Corporation (NYSE:PVA) today announced that it has closed the previously announced sale of its East Texas assets. The net cash proceeds from the sale were approximately $74 million, including customary closing adjustments.

Pro forma for the East Texas divestiture, at June 30, 2015, our total debt ratio and credit exposure ratio, defined as all outstanding borrowings under our revolving credit facility (Revolver) plus any outstanding letters of credit, were 3.6 times and 0.4 times trailing twelve months' pro forma Adjusted EBITDAX, respectively, with $138 million outstanding under our revolving Revolver and financial liquidity of $259 million. This compares to total debt and credit exposure ratios of 3.7 times and 0.6 times, respectively, with $212 million outstanding under the Revolver and financial liquidity of $215 million as of June 30, 2015.

The divestiture was already given effect in our most recent 2015 guidance.
