

Conversion of GW Ordinary Shares into Nasdaq listed ADRs

Suggested Broker contact details:

14 February 2017

Dear Shareholder

I have been made aware that, since GW's de-listing from AIM in December, a number of private shareholders who have since decided to convert their certificated Ordinary shares into ADSs have struggled to find UK based brokers who are familiar with the Ordinary share to ADS conversion process and who are willing to carry out this service at a reasonable cost.

I have received positive feedback from a number of shareholders who have dealt with Hargreave Hale and, for your convenience, I am providing contact details below for Josh Sanford at Hargreave Hale in London.

Josh is familiar with the ADS conversion process and has offered to provide this service to GW shareholders who wish to undertake this conversion.

It is my understanding that once your Ordinary shares have been converted into ADSs, you can then instruct Hargreave Hale to continue to hold them on your behalf or execute the sale of the resulting ADSs on your behalf. Josh will be able to provide you with full details of the fees charged for ADS conversion and/or sale execution.

Yours Sincerely

Adam George

Company Secretary
