- (1) The Company hereby notes that no portion of its dividend represents amounts eligible for treatment as qualified dividend income in accordance with IRC Section 854(b), nor is any portion of the dividend eligible for the dividends received deduction available to certain U.S. domestic corporations.
- (2) Special Notice for Non-U.S. Resident Company Shareholders: In accordance with IRC sections 871(k) and 881(e), 100% of the Company’s calendar year 2013 ordinary dividends constitute interest related dividends and short-term capital gain dividends for U.S. federal tax purposes. To the extent non-U.S. resident taxes were withheld on ordinary dividends distributed, this information may be considered in connection with any claims for refund of such taxes to be filed by the non-U.S. resident shareholder with the Internal Revenue Service. Please contact your personal tax advisor with any questions regarding this information.
- (3) The company hereby designates these distributions as amounts eligible for treatment as capital gain dividends in accordance with IRC Sections 852(b)(3) and 854(a).

Dividends and distributions that were reinvested through the Company’s Dividend Reinvestment Plan are treated, for tax purposes, as if they had been paid in cash. Therefore, stockholders who participate in the Dividend Reinvestment Plan should also refer to the above table.

This notice is not intended to constitute tax, legal, investment or other professional advice. This is general information and should not be relied upon without consulting your tax advisor. Stockholders should be aware that tax treatment is subject to change by law in the future or retroactively.
