If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate)

- (a) The reasons described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense;
- (b) The subject annual report, semi-annual report, transition report on Form 10-K, Form 20-F, 11-K, Form N-SAR or Form N-CSR, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date; or the subject quarterly report or transition report on Form 10-Q or subject distribution report on Form 10-D, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date; and

The registrant is unable to file, without unreasonable effort and expense, its Form 10-K Annual Report for the year ended December 31, 2016 because the registrant's auditor has not completed their audit of the Form 10-K and related financial statements. The registrant changed its auditor in late 2016 and is still finalizing testing of internal controls for management's assessment of internal controls and providing information to the auditor for certain financial matters. In accordance with Rule 12b-25 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, the registrant expects to file its Form 10-K no later than the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date.

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

As previously reported in the Form 10-Q's filed during 2016, the registrant sold all of the membership interests of its subsidiary IHC Risk Solutions, LLC (RS) and co-insured all of the in-force stop-loss insurance business of Standard Security Life Insurance Company of New York and Independence American Insurance Company produced by RS. This caused a significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year. Registrant recorded a gain from discontinued operations and corresponding increase in book value of approximately $100 million from the sale of RS in the first quarter of 2016.
