Noodles & Company Celebrates the End of Tax Season With Appetizing Offer to Help Americans De-Stress

Noodles Rewards Guests with "File Online, Order Online" Discount Code for $4 Off $10 Online Orders

BROOMFIELD, Colo., April 12, 2017 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Noodles & Company (NASDAQ:NDLS), serving classic noodle and pasta dishes from around the world, today announced the return of its "File Online, Order Online" promotion to help guests de-stress after completing their taxes. As a celebratory treat for those filing online this year, Noodles is offering $4 off any $10 purchase placed through order.noodles.com from April 12 — 18, 2017 using the code "TAXDAY17" at checkout.

"Tax Day is stressful enough, so we want to make it a little bit easier — and delicious — by offering our guests an opportunity to save a little cash while enjoying their favorite meal," said Jonathan Tress, vice president of marketing at Noodles & Company.

According to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), last year, the average American received a refund of $3,218; if their refund was spent on the Noodles' "File Online, Order Online" offer, they'd each enjoy 358 bowls of Noodles & Company's new Thai Green Curry with Shrimp — one for almost every day of the year. The South Asian-inspired Thai Green Curry with Shrimp pairs a sweet and spicy coconut green curry sauce, rice noodles, pineapple, broccoli, red onion, snap peas, lime, black sesame seeds and cilantro with sautéed shrimp. Plus, if the IRS applied the $125 billion that Americans were refunded during 2015 toward a more delicious purchase, it would be able to provide 12.8 billion bowls of Noodles & Company's new Pork or Chicken Adobo, or dinner for nearly a month and a half for the entire U.S. population. With an authentic Mexican influence, Pork or Chicken Adobo starts with a cavatappi noodle base and adds smoky adobo sauce, red onions, roasted mushrooms, olives, sour cream, lime and cilantro topped with slow-braised pork or grilled chicken.
